Travelling to School

*You're going to listen to Brian who will tell you a story about what once happened to him when he was a young boy.
The story is divided into different parts. After each part you'll answer some questions, sometimes by putting a cross in the correct box and sometimes by writing one or more words. At the end you'll hear everything Brian says once again without pauses.*

- • • When answering questions with alternatives, choose ONE alternative only.
